

That was a gift we can never make our Grandchildren realize it. — But that I was not as the — day — a crowd of memories, —
 which your idea
 some monument is
 Whitney Fund
 Nov 4, 1963 (Moss)
 050

received, telling of George Thompson's death, awakens
 a crowd of memories, —
 which your idea
 some monument is
 Whitney Fund
 Nov 4, 1963 (Moss)
 050

But the fact
 he was well described by the friends of Glasgow
 when they decided to be inscribed on the wall they have signed. His consequence will be a triumph shall be no longer "Gloss"
 just stop. You will find M.W. Chapman.

grateful & welcome
might it be a little
volume - (whatever
you may write)
- & in addition a
lost surmounting a
tablet? Now that we have an artist
of such delicate perception,
such deep feeling &
trained skill &
such strength of hand,
as

as Mrs Whitney, it
seems as if the means
were at hand for a
perfect perpetuation of his features. What a friend What a helper - what a great good man have
we had! - While memory remains we have not lost him. While
the world lasts it will
he

the better for him.

How much beloved is his memory. - his very faults
make him more beloved.

The good he did is just computation. More than most other men do for the race of Mankind he did, -

before we take into the account his special gift -

that wonderful organ of the voice which always

seemed like an breath of

sublimation; - 9

"As if an angel's breath had lent

"A vigour to the instrument."

P. S. For expenses on back any plan of your may incurred, may I give to follow the more to have
the more to have